

CBOA Officiating Services Agreement

Members of the Calgary Basketball Officials Association (CBOA) are the only members of the provincial referee organization, the Alberta Basketball Officials Association (ABOA) As such we are pleased to partner with the sanctioning body for all basketball played in the province, the Alberta Basketball (AB).

Our organization is the only officially recognized local referee association of the Canadian Basketball Officials Commission (CBOC). a committee under the auspices of Canada Basketball. CBOA members are trained, assessed, and certified to national standards for basketball officials set forth by Canada Basketball. Members of the Calgary Basketball Officials Association are the only basketball officials in the greater Calgary area eligible to receive this training and certification. No other organization in the greater Calgary area is recognized as a Canadian certified basketball official.

Scheduling

With the information received, a member of the CBOA Scheduling and Assigning team will be contacting you. It is best if your League or Tournament schedule is provided to the CBOA in a spreadsheet format. This format is the best way to have your schedule imported into the CBOA assigning software. Should you have any questions regarding this, email scheduler@cboa.ca

Discipline Policy

In order to supply referees to your basketball event, the Calgary Basketball Officials Association requires that you have an enforceable supplemental discipline policy documented and made available to all participants and the CBOA. Your policy must be at minimum the equivalent of section 17.1 of the Calgary High School Athletic Association policy. (reference:

http://www.calgaryhighschoolsports.ca/files/policy_17-violations_of_the_constitution-december_2018.docx)

The CBOA requires that all facilities where games are played have a member of the event organizing group present and available to address any situations that arise

31. Discipline Policy *

Indicate here as to which supplementary discipline policy will be used for your basketball event.

☐ CHSAA / Rockyview / Foothills policy

☐ Own Policy (will provide copy)
